

I think it's ridiculous to ban traffic and weather station from satellite radio. I travel many times through out the year and the traffic and weather stations comes very handy when traveling from state to state. It also keeps up alert so were aware of which places to keep from in order to have a safe and pleasent drive.